Web Assistant Training

Training has started for the Level III's, which are those individuals with administrative responsibilities. We are trying to keep the classes limited to 6 individuals. Training has included Subscription Service, which covers automatic informative emails and the RSS Reader which would put updates onto your PC screen and would not require an email address. The training also covers Calendar Maintenance, Keyword Maintenance, HTMLs and other technologies that are now available. We feel that we can complete training with the Level III's with two more classes, and then we would begin training with other personnel.

Digital Cities Survey

Terry is in the process of completing the Digital Cities survey, the survey is due back in around mid October.

New Business

WiLinc Commission

The new WI-Linc Commission, which was formed by Jonathan Cook is receiving a lot of promotion. I. S. has been working on the "wireless" for two years, and would like to visit with the Commission members as to what has already been researched or worked on.

InterLinc Partnerships

InterLinc Partnerships is now on the street for rebid and due back by October 11th.
